Norwich, Tuesday, Jan. 18, 1910.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Ice cutters resumed work yesterday.
Snow shovels will gather no rust this season.

This is the prudent shoppers' month for money saving.

The snow is so high that at midday the snow thaws considerably.

With the first evidences of the January thaw coughs and colds prevail.

Milkmen feel that they have well earned the price received for the white fluid this week.

Many women from out of town were attracted to Norwich by the special sales on Monday.

New corporations were formed during the past week in Connecticut with a capital of $331,000.

Improved walking and bright sunshine encouraged many shut-ins to venture out yesterday.

Early lighting-up is not so necessary as at the beginning of the month, the day being now nine and one-half hours long.

Seven petitions in bankruptcy were filed during the past week in Connecticut. The assets were $15,855, liabilities $27,925.

Gov. Frank B. Weeks has reappointed Dr. Redford B. West of Guilford as state chemist for the term of two years from January 18.

District Supt. J. H. Newland of Norwich is to hold the fourth quarterly conference in the New London Methodist Episcopal church on Friday evening of next week.

Monday morning was one of the keenest and coldest of the season, the mercury dropping well toward the zero mark here, and from 6 degrees to 10 degrees below in towns north of Norwich.

The twenty-fifth annual convention of the Connecticut Dairymen's association will be held in Hartford on January 26, 27 and 28. The retiring officers include Vice-President G. Warren Davis of Norwich.

A Torrington correspondent writes: Rev. Father William A. Gilden, the new assistant at St. Francis' church, delivered his first sermon in Torrington at the several masses Sunday and made an excellent impression.

William Corcoran, formerly crossing tender at the union station, New London, has been engaged as general utility man with the Harlan-Biglow Construction company, erecting the large paper mill at Montville.

Bird bread lines in each school yard and food scattered where the birds flock about every house are also recommended as a part of the Audubon League's campaign to protect the birds, now that the snow has cut off their food supplies.

One weather prophet predicts severe storms on Jan. 24th, 25th, 26th and 27th, and writes: "On these dates I would strongly advise all ocean bound vessels to remain in port. Otherwise, I fear that much loss of life and property will result."

The Rev. Henry H. Morse of Danbury, who has previously been recently, has resigned as associate pastor of the Danbury Congregational church, on account of the society's inability to pay that salary. The church committee has adopted resolutions commending his successful work.

The committee, appointed at the last session of the legislature to have additional buildings to be built at Storrs college was to have a meeting in room of the capitol Saturday, but the meeting was postponed until February 1. The committee consists of Charles M. Jarvis of Berlin, Charles A. Capen of Willimantic and L. J. Storrs of Mansfield.

PERSONAL

Charles Newbury of Eastern Point has been a visitor in Norwich recently.

Mrs. J. C. Darby of McKinley avenue has returned after a week's stay at Farmington.

Capt. Edwin Ewen of this city, formerly master of the Central Vermont line of steamers, was a visitor in New London Monday.

Clarence B. Messenger has returned from New Haven, where he attended a meeting of the board of adjustment committee for the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, of which he is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Connelly, who have been visiting Mr. Connelly's mother here for about a month, leave this week for New York. Mr. Connelly, the Irish tenor, is to join Victor's Venetian band as one of the Royal Venetian quartette, which will accompany the band in its concert engagements.

Friends of Miss Wohlfarth and Miss Julie Wohlfarth, formerly of Norwich, learn that they are pleasantly located in Pasadena, California, where they have bought a cosy bungalow, from which they have a magnificent view of the mountains, recently covered with snow. The ladies Wohlfarth spent the past summer at Long Beach and are soon to visit the Riverside region.

Carpenters Observe Anniversary

All Other Unions Invited, There Being a Large Gathering

—John H. Barnes Spoke on Present Legislative Conditions.

Thames union, No. 137, U. B. of C. and of all, celebrated its twenty-fourth anniversary Monday evening in Carpenters' hall with a chowder and smoker which was attended by about 200 men. The carpenters had invited the officers of all the other locals to help them in celebrating the anniversary, and all were represented, except the plumbers, who were having a social of their own in C. L. U. hall.

The chowder opened the evening, well served by the committee, which included M. J. Kelley, James Grierson, Robert McNeely, Christopher Dixon and Augustus Barnes. The chowder was furnished by the Norwich concert orchestra at the supper hour and throughout the evening.

After the banquet was over President Christopher Dixon expressed a cordial welcome to all the working men in Pittsburg who were going without food and asking for work. He also sketched the world's history since the fall of Babylon, to show that industrial conditions at this time are a fulfillment of the prophecies of Daniel. Speaking of national politics, he told how men try to work for the working people, and also the case of Pinchot, who was endorsed by Roosevelt, but "fired" because he had the nerve to bring up the matter of the disposal of the public lands.

Attorney Barnes also explained with condemnation as a most iniquitous law the fellow servant and assumption of risk statute. He told his hearers that the last year there had been 35,000 to 40,000 deaths from machinery accidents, and that under existing laws he told the union men that they should be for the workman to sue, and only one chance in ten to win their suits.
